

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

GOOS & KOENEMANN'S NEW IRIS SEEDLINGS—To the Trade Only

This offer is made to a limited number of firms, interested in Iris at almost cost price, to give them a chance to get acquainted with G. & K's. last creations, which I feel sure soon will be as popular as their former varieties: Loreley, Rhein-Nixe, Nibelungen, Iris King, Flammenschwert, Rheintraube, Lohengrin, Etc. Price, $1.50 each. $15.00 per dozen. 6 Plants at dozen rate.

FOLKWANG. In beautiful color blending a wonder of nature, very hard to describe. Fall claret red with conspicuous veinings of brownish yellow and light edging. Standards of lustrous light rose Pink.

ROTA. A descendant of "Dorothy" eclipsing its progenitor by far in luminous power. Standards of bright silky carmine-pink. Falls of a darker tone with distinguishable veinings, but no bordering. Of medium height and very free flowering habit, a brilliant mass-effect in bright sunlight.

RHEINGAUPERLE. A striking novelty of a wonderful soft rose-pink. The standards being lighter in shade than the falls. The latter are remarkably broad, in countereffect with the straight up dome shaped crown lend distinction and beauty to the flowers.

FORSETE. A one color variety producing dark lavender flowers of Pallida Dalmatica size on unusuable free branching stems of from 3 to 4 feet high.

BALDER. Dome Shaped Yellow Olive colored standards with light bluish reflex. Falls of dark reddish purple with olive line base. A combination bound to meet with popular favor.

VINGOLF. (Countess Lonyay X Her Majesty). Falls deep velvety violet-blue with light clear cut margins. Standards approaching cream color. The fascinating feature of this novelty is a new beautiful contrast effect in color combination of the single flower.

FRANK KOEHLER — Rosedale Hardy Plant Farm — Camden, New Jersey

FRANK KOEHLER,
ROSEDALE HARDY PLANT FARM,
CAMDEN, N. J.

Chas E. E. Gersdorff.
1825. N. Capital St.
Wash. D.C.
~~R.F.D.~~
~~#2~~
Laurel Maryland